

Are You Inclusive?
A DARE Initiative

Pictogram release form

Fill in this form if you've made your own pictogram using one of our templates

Thank you for using one of our templates to make your own pictogram. We love that you've embraced the Are You Inclusive spirit and have made it your own!

Because you'd like your pictogram to be associated with our brand, we need you to fill in the below form. This is just to ensure consistency with our brand and to make sure you have taken responsibility for ensuring you have permission to use the images you added.

If you have any questions or concerns about this, please feel free to have a chat with us!

I have made my own pictogram using one of the Are You Inclusive templates, available at www.areyouinclusive.com.au/pictograms.

I understand that DARE Disability Support Limited ("DARE") need to review and approve my pictogram before DARE adds the Are You Inclusive branding to the pictogram and approves its use.

I warrant that I have permission to use all images I have included in the pictogram for the purpose intended and release DARE and its related entities from any liability and claims in respect of the pictogram prepared by me. I agree to fully indemnify (including legal costs) and hold harmless DARE for any and all claims, suits or actions made by any party (including me) in respect of the pictogram prepared by me.

Optional inclusion on our website:

- ☐ Tick here if you would like your pictogram available on the Are You Inclusive website (www.areyouinclusive.com.au/pictograms) for others to download and use. Your business/service will be credited for your contribution. Make sure your image permissions include being posted online, embedded within a PDF.
